DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD, J.

DATED : 26TH SEPTEMBER, 2007.

P.C.:

In the facts and circumstances of the case and particularly when the order of transfer has already been given effect to and the petitioner has already accepted the same about two years back, we do not see it appropriate to interfere under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. The writ petition is disposed of, accordingly.

However, all contentions on law are kept open.
